ART PRICES CURRENT.

Volume IV., 1910-11.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

Enlarged Scope.

At the request of numerous subscribers we have decided to extend the scope of the fourth and future volumes by including the whole of the fine art prices at the sale rooms of Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson and Hodge, and Messrs. Puttick and Simpson.

The Index will be further improved by giving a list of subjects under the name of each artist or engraver.

These changes will largely increase the size of the volume, and its cost of production, and we shall be obliged, therefore, to raise its price to One Guinea. We are assured that the volume in its enlarged and improved form will be more than doubled in value. As the result of the arrangements we have made, Vol. IV. will appear in October, 1911.

Monthly Issue.

The record of prices in all three sale-rooms—Christie's, Sotheby's, and Puttick & Simpson's—can now be obtained monthly from December to September at a charge of 7/6 post free, payable in advance. Subscribers for the monthly issue purchasing the annual volume with Index will be credited with 3/6 as an allowance off the purchase price. As the number of the monthly issue will be limited an early application, accompanied by a remittance of 7/6, should be made.

For One Guinea

Paid in advance the monthly issue will be forwarded post free, and the annual volume as soon as published.

A New Edition, Revised and Enlarged under the Supervision of GEORGE C. WILLIAMSON, Litt.D., assisted by a large Staff of Specialists.

With 500 Illustrations, including 40 Photogravure Plates.

The present edition contains upwards of 1,400 new biographies, and nearly 6,000 corrections have been made in articles which have been allowed to stand. In addition to this, 250 lives have been partly re-written.

"The text bears evidence of careful revision on every page ; and the value of the book to the general reader is very greatly increased by a fine series of reproductions after masterpieces in all countries. In short, Dr. Williamson has done his work with intelligence and with thoroughness. Certainly no one interested in the Fine Arts can afford to be without this comprehensive and indispensable dictionary."—Pall Mall Gazette.

"The five volumes will no doubt take rank amongst the standard publications of the twentieth century."—Studio.

THE LIFE OF
GEORGE MORLAND

(1763-1804)

By George Dawe, R.A.

With an Introduction and Notes by J. J. FOSTER.

Sumptuously Illustrated by Full-page Plates reproduced by the finest method of Photogravure, from examples in the National and Private Galleries, and a Frontispiece in Colours on Japan paper.

Cloth extra, gilt top, head bands, etc. Size 13 $\frac{1}{4}$ by 10.

Published at £3 3s. net.

We are enabled, by a special arrangement with the publisher, to offer this splendid record of Morland's work at £2 2s.

The subjects included in this edition are fifty-six in number, and comprise "The Angler's Repast" and "Dancing Dogs"; such illustrations of child life as the "Playing at Soldiers," "The Kite Entangled," "Birds Nesting," "Nutting," and "The Angry Farmer"; several of his subject pictures, of which "Lætitia" and "The Recruit" series are examples: Stable and Rural scenes, such as "The Reckoning," "The Postboy's Return," "The Benevolent Sportsman," "The Turnpike Gate," "Gipsies," and the "Farmer's Stable"; and a selection of the Coast and Fishing scenes.

Collectors will appreciate the carefully prepared Appendices which show the prices obtained for the original paintings, and of mezzotint and other engravings from them, for many years past. Another most useful table for reference is an alphabetical list of plates after Morland with names of engravers, sizes, etc.

Note our price. Two Guineas, obtainable only by ordering direct, with remittance, from Preface to Volume III.

In the amount of information it contains, the third volume of Art Prices Current shows a considerable advance upon its two predecessors. In last year's issue the number of entries in the Index was about 20,000; in this volume it exceeds 30,000. The increase, in the main, is due to the much larger number of engravings offered for sale during the year at Christie's, one collection—the Theobald—alone occupying nine days in its disposal.

Art Prices Current can be said to have increased in value from year to year. With the issue for 1910-11—as fully explained in another part of this volume (see page v)—we shall greatly extend its scope by adding a complete record of prices obtained for engravings, etc., at the rooms of Messrs. Sotheby, Wilkinson and Hodge, and Messrs. Puttick and Simpson.

The public interested in Art, together with the Press, have shown so far the warmest appreciation of Art Prices Current. With the great development in its scope just indicated, we confidently anticipate that of future volumes their appreciation will be correspondingly augmented.

Critical and Descriptive Dictionary

Of Painters, Designers, Engravers,
Sculptors, of all times and countries.

By a number of French and Foreign Specialists, under the direction of E. BENEZIT.

Two large volumes, octavo, each containing more than 1,000 pages with numerous illustrations after the Masters. Paper covers, 60 francs; bound, 5 francs per volume extra. Payable 10 francs on subscribing, and the balance in two equal instalments on delivery of the volumes.

If the amount of matter renders it necessary, a third volume will be provided without extra charge to Subscribers.

On the publication of the second volume the price will be raised to 80 francs, and if (as is probable) there is a third volume the price will be 100 francs unbound.

TO ARTISTS, COLLECTORS AND ART DEALERS.

Everybody possessing paintings, drawings, engravings, or sculpture will find it advantageous to purchase this Dictionary. They will find in it the most complete information respecting all artists, living or dead, as much from the biographical point of view as from that of their works, and the monetary value these possess according to the results of public auctions in all the great art centres.

NO SUCH BOOK OF REFERENCE AS THIS AT PRESENT EXISTS.

Artistic productions represent in value many millions of pounds, and, apart from a few rare examples, the value of such treasures is but little known. Many persons, without doubt, possess works of art which they will find, on consulting the Dictionary, possess considerable value. Quite recently two engravings by Rembrandt reached the price of 80,000 francs each.

In the Benezit Dictionary it will be found that the most varied information is given in methodical order such as could not otherwise be obtained without long and difficult research. It will include a large amount of information hitherto unpublished. It will contain more than 20 millions of letters representing the value of more than 50 ordinary volumes at 3 francs, 50 centimes each. In these two volumes will be found double the matter contained in the most complete works of this kind.

It will contain notably :—

1. A biography of each artist.
2. A list of his works in all the galleries, museums and other public buildings of the world.
3. A list of his works in all the great collections of the world.
4. A list of his works which appeared in the art exhibitions of different countries.
5. The prices obtained for his works at public sales.
6. A dictionary of the monograms and marks of particular collections, the signatures of the principal artists, etc.

VOLUMES I. and II. WILL BE PUBLISHED IN 1911.
